Product Description

Acoustic Desk Divider / Acoustic Desk Divider

Acoustic desk screens are ideal for busy office environments helping to reduce the effects of ambient noise as well as improving acoustics. We have a wide selection of screens which would suit any office space.

To transform an office garden into an oasis of calm, partitions between workstations are a must. Acoustic desk screens make working environments calmer, allowing everyone in the room to concentrate better. Of course, this also applies to a home office. There are hanging variants, stand with legs, foldable and some are even equipped with lighting, creating a total package for any workplace.
